Lesson 2: Understanding The Creation

A. CENTRAL QUESTION

What things can we learn about God from this creation account??

B. THE TEXT

Read Genesis 1:1—2:3

C. DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. List and briefly describe what was took place in each day of creation:

1
2
3
4
5
6
7

2. What things can we learn about God in this creation account?
3. How does Romans 1:20 relate to the creation?
4. Did God rest because he was tired of creating things? Why or why not?
5. When God saw what he had created he said it was good. What do you think he meant by this?
6. What aspects of the creation impress you most and why?
7. Re-read this text again and ask yourself, "how does this creation account affect the way I understand God and how I am to relate to him?"

D. SUMMARY COMMENTS GENESIS 1:1—2:3

In Genesis God takes us back to the beginning. He pulls back the curtain to reveal how the universe began. He does not provide us with a scientific text documented with step-by-step procedures and a rigid timetable. Rather God reveals himself to be the sovereign creator of all matter and life.
